The Journey and the Story

Wisdom tales can offer support in periods of personal uncertainty. Such lore is an enduring form of guidance. This webinar explores the mythological patterns in familiar stories to see how enchanting characters provide clues for our own quests. These tales show how to find the right path and serve a worthy calling. Dr. Young will draw on his work with Joseph Campbell to investigate what we can learn from the mythic imagination.

Jonathan Young, Ph.D., is a psychologist and storyteller who assisted mythologist Joseph Campbell for several years at seminars. He went on to serve as the founding curator of the Joseph Campbell Archive and Library at Pacifica Graduate Institute in Santa Barbara, CA, where he was a founding faculty member and still teaches. Dr. Young is a consulting producer of documentary films on the History Channel and appears as a featured expert. His books and articles focus on mythology, and he maintains an online counseling practice.
