Restoring the Sacred: Return to the Center

with Karl Schlotterbeck Tuesdays, June 15 & 22, 2021 7:00 to 9:00 PM CDT online

Note that the dates do not follow our usual pattern. We are meeting on the third and fourth Tuesdays in June

Suggested donation is $15 per session, but in recognition of stresses of the times and differing situations, participants are invited to donate according to their means.

This seminar is open to those who have a good working relationship with their Shamanic spirit helpers.

After a year of often intensive experiences, beginning with the Center of the Wheel and the Self, reaching out to the worlds around us, and recognizing our ancestry and those who walk with us, we will harvest what has grown in us. We will make our plans to foster our own spiritual authority and Sovereignty in new cycles of life, and a renewal of our identity and spirit relationships. Of course, we will also recognize the Summer Solstice as fulfillment of the Sun's cycle.

If not already registered for the series, registration should be sent to Ann at ann.mongeau@unitynorthmn.org by Wednesday, June 9.

Access links and instructions to prepare for each session will be sent to those who register by the 5th Links to the video recording of the session will be sent after the session.

This course represents the harvest of many threads of Karl's explorations, including studies of Celtic Spirituality, Druidism, depth psychology and comparative religion, and what he's learned over the last 35 years from people like Michael Harner, Sandra Ingerman, Sami shaman Ailo Gaup, the Mongolian shamanism of Sarangeral and, most extensively, Celtic shaman Tom Cowan. He's been a school psychologist (1973-2014), licensed psychologist (1991-2018); teacher of Druids; author of three books on reincarnation, karma and past-life therapy, and a just-published book titled Shadows in the Light of God. He's a musician, grandfather, beekeeper, and yeast herder.
