

Restoring the Sacred:

Nature Mysticism and Making Love to the Land

with Karl Schlotterbeck

Tuesdays, May 11 & 25, 2021

7:00 to 9:00 PM CDT online

Suggested donation is $15 per session, but in recognition of stresses of the times and differing situations, participants are invited to donate according to their means.

This seminar is open to those who have a good working relationship with their Shamanic spirit helpers.

As the Earth warms up in May and we celebrate Bealtaine, we will re-engage with the natural world around us, experience our shared life, and seek nature's wisdom through omen hunts and Power Plants. We will also begin to integrate what we've learned about our Cauldrons of Soul with practices for self-care.

If not already registered for the series, registration should be sent to Ann at ann.mongeau@unitynorthmn.org by Wednesday, May 5. Access links and instructions to prepare for each session will be sent to those who register by the 5th. Links to the video recording of the session will be sent after the session.

This course represents the harvest of many threads of Karl's explorations, including studies of Celtic Spirituality, Druidism, depth psychology and comparative religion, and what he's learned over the last 35 years from people like Michael Harner, Sandra Ingerman, Sami shaman Ailo Gaup, the Mongolian shamanism of Sarangeral and, most extensively, Celtic shaman Tom Cowan. He's been a school psychologist (1973-2014), licensed psychologist (1991-2018); teacher of Druids; author of three books on reincarnation, karma and past-life therapy, and a just-published book titled Shadows in the Light of God. He's a musician, grandfather, beekeeper, and yeast herder.
